WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.-Senator Allicon, Aldrich, Hiscock and Jones, of the sub-committee of Republicans or the Senate Finance Committee, to-day continued the consideration of the tariff bill. The items in the wood schedule were passed, and the sugar schedule laid over for the present, it being deemed best to await the return of Senator Morrill and Sherman before taking up a committee this morning. They asked an increase of the duty on dressed fors and manufactured articles over that provided in the House bill. The formakers said that until recently the home market had not been invaded by the foreign manufacturers, and the old rate of duty was sufficient, although the resident manufacturers paid their workmen $20 to $25 a week, while the foreign manufacturers paid their workmen $20 to $25 a week, while the foreign manufacturers paid but $8 and $10 for the same class of labor. THE FEDERAL ELECTION BILLS.

Rawell's Plan, With Modifications, Likely to be Adopted.

Washington, June 3.—The Republican caucus last evening did not fully settle the question as to which of the National election bills it would adopt.

The indications are, however, that they will adopt the Rowell plan, with a little modification which will extend the present supervisory system throughout the State.

The Lodge Bill has many supporters, but fear is expressed as to whether the Senate would pass such a measure.

The Southern Democrats do not disguise their anxiety in regard to the probability of the passage of a Federal election law. Prominent representatives of Southern States where the negroes largely predominate, in alluding to the matter to-day, said they did not believe that a measure of the character proposed could be enforced. They do not so much fear the law itself as they-do complications which may grow-out of it. To adopt a measure like the Hoar or Lodge bill would carry matters to an extreme which would, in their opinion, involve serious difficulties. The Republican leaders, however, after careful deliberation, are satisfied that unless some legislative action be taken a fair election in the South will be impossible.

A SOUTH CAROLINA CONTEST.

Committee on Elections this morning by Chairman Rowell. The report is somewhat sensational in that at th very begining it declares that the entire laws are unconstitutional, since State laws on the subject conflict with the State Constitution. The report states that a number of negroes have been compelled by poverty, while waiting the maturing of their cotton crops, to negotiate their certificates to traders, who immediately send them to political head. A Pleasant Surprise.
A very pleasant entertainment was given in the Convent hall last evening, in the nature of a surprise to Sister M. Angela, by the members of the "Nine O'clock Choir." The hall was artistically decorated, and the costumes of the participants were in accordance with the parts they enacted, thus making the affair a scene of gaiety long to be remembered. After the programme was completed, the choir presented their directress with a handsome rosewood musical cabinet.
